THOM'S BLOKES This Tuesday 20 June Thom's blokes have a presentation by David Bell (The Plague Doctor) on 'Keeping well 350 years ago'. In his own tongue-in-cheek style David Bell's story is sure to entertain, inform, reflect, make you smile, make you wince ... even perhaps bring a tear to your eye. All men welcome. ADRIAN PICTON Along with 4 friends I am taking part in a 10K walk in Chesterfield to raise money for Ashgate Hospice in loving memory of my darling wife Sarah who passed away last September. It's their annual Sparkle Night Walk and it's taking place on 1 July at 10pm. It starts and ends at The Proact Stadium. We are all wearing something pink as it was Sarah's favourite colour. Apparently all the walkers are going to be issued with flashing pink bunny ears so it should be great fun. I would be so grateful for anything you can give, however small, in aid of this special cause. You can make a donation and also read Sarah's story and find out why Ashgate Hospice is so special to me, as it has been to so many people, via the following webpage:
